

Artists Encounter Camp in southwest France 2019

Have you ever wondered why so many artists worldwide come to France throughout the history?
You better find it out for yourselves.

Objectives:

Artists need space and time to perceive and contemplate.
Artists need new stimulation and inspiration.
Artists sometimes need to be in solitude and sometimes need intellectual exchanges.

We provide space for poets, writers & artists of multiple disciplines to come together to exchange ideas, make conversation through art and to experiment. Fellow artists will bring home inspirations & insights they found here for further development. They may also build up new connection which will help them to fly higher in the future.

Sze, the hostess of La Min-su de Terrasson (石木民宿) is a dance artist herself. She finds that if an artist wants to be fully independent and free. He/she cannot lean on funders and art development organisations all the time. As dependence comes with limitations, freedom comes from responsibility.

Facilities:

We are located in a lovely little town called Terrasson La-villedieu, La Dordogne at the heart of La belle France (The beautiful France) in southwest of France. Though the town is small, but it's equipped with shops, cafes, supermarkets, artisan workshops, clinics, a cinema, a train station, farmers market every Thursday morning...etc. A bigger town, Brive-la-Gaillarde is about 25 minutes from us.

Our min-su is built by our own hands from scratch (we took 1 year & 3 months to overhaul a French heritage house into a 'home for sharing') and it's self financed. The house included a dining room, a living room, a terrace, a garden, four en suite rooms and a dance studio. And we are a smoke free facility.
